BILLING CODE 4160-01-F

DEPARTMENT OF STATEBureau of Consular Affairs*22 CFR Part 42

[Public Notice 2229]

VISAS: Immigrant Religious Workers

AGENCY: Bureau of Consular Affairs, DOS.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: On October 1, 1991, the Department published an interim rule [56 FR 49675], which among other things, implemented sec. 151 of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1990

(IMMACT 90). The interim rule, effective October 1, 1991, amended the Department of State regulations to extend special immigrant status, as defined under INA 101(a)(27)(C), to religious workers who have 2 years of membership and experience in a religious occupation or vocation. The legislation, as originally enacted, required religious workers (other than ministers) to seek entry into the United States before October 1, 1994. The interim rule invited interested persons to submit comments concerning the amendments. No comments were received. Thus, the final rule implementing the provisions of sec. 151 was published unmodified on September 16, 1993 [58 FR 48447].

On October 25, 1994, sec. 214 of the Immigration and Nationality Technical Corrections Act of 1994 amended INA 101(a)(27)(C)(ii) to extend the deadline to enter the United States to "before October 1, 1997", i.e., aliens entering under this category must seek to enter the United States no later than September 30, 1997. Thus, this final rule amends the previously published regulation and implements this provision.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 12, 1995.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Immigration Act of 1990

Sec. 151 of the Immigration Act of 1990 (IMMACT 90), Public Law 101-649, amended INA 101(a)(27)(C) by adding a new category of special immigrants who will work in a religious occupation or vocation for a religious organization in a professional or other capacity. Unlike the provision for special immigrant ministers of religion, which does not contain a sunset provision, the provisions for religious workers (as defined under INA 101(a)(27)(C)(ii) (II) and (III)), as originally enacted, required religious workers to seek to enter the United States before October 1, 1994.

Immigration and Nationality Technical Corrections Act of 1994

On October 25, 1994, sec. 214 of the Immigration and Nationality Technical Corrections Act of 1994 (Pub. L. 103-416) amended INA 101(a)(27)(C)(ii) to extend the sunset date to October 1, 1997. This final rule implements sec. 214 of Pub. L. 103-416, amending part 42, title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, by revising 42.32(d)(1)(ii) to extend the visa validity date to no later than September 30, 1997. This rule also makes a minor technical change to the 8 CFR reference.

Final Rule

This rule is not expected to have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act. This rule imposes no reporting or recordkeeping action from the public requiring the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act requirements. This rule has been reviewed as required by E.O. 12778 and certified to be in compliance therewith. This rule is exempted from E.O. 12866 but has been coordinated with INS and reviewed to ensure consistency therewith. The corresponding INS regulation was published in the Federal Register on June 6, 1995 [60 FR 29751].

BILLING CODE 5000-04-M

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

National Park Service

36 CFR Parts 5 and 7

RIN 1024-AC15

Glacier National Park; Fishing Regulations, Motorboat Regulations and Commercial Passenger-Carrying Motor Vehicle Regulations

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The National Park Service is publishing final rules for Glacier National Park revising its current regulations regarding sport fishing, motorboats and commercial passenger-carrying motor vehicles.

The National Park Service (NPS) is replacing the current Glacier National Park fishing regulations with a regulation that gives the Park Superintendent more discretion in managing the Park's fisheries. This final rule will continue to allow fishing in most streams, rivers and lakes in Glacier National Park. The Superintendent, however, will have the authority to close areas to fishing or establish conditions for fishing consistent with the park's fisheries program objectives, without going through the formal rulemaking process. As a consequence, the park will be more responsive to the changing needs of its fisheries program.

Effects of this rule are expected to be minimal and should not alter, to any degree, the number of angler days presently occurring.

The NPS is modifying the motorboat regulations in Glacier National Park. This final rule change will prohibit motorboat use on Kintla Lake, located within the North Fork area of the park. The 1974 Glacier Environmental Statement/Wilderness Recommendation included Kintla Lake as recommended wilderness and indicated that if Congress designated this area as wilderness, motorboating—a traditional activity on Kintla Lake—would be eliminated. Glacier's 1992 North Fork Management Plan's preferred alternative includes the prohibition of motorboats on Kintla Lake. With this change in place, the park staff will be able to more effectively protect wilderness values and accomplish the management goals and objectives outlined in the North Fork Management Plan. Effects of this rule are expected to be minimal in terms of the number of park visitors affected. A small group of motorboat users will be displaced from Kintla Lake. However, a more desirable wilderness experience will be provided for users of non-motorized craft to enjoy solitude and quiet without the disruption of motor noise.

The NPS is modifying the commercial passenger-carrying motor vehicle regulations for Glacier National Park. This final rule change will clarify the exceptions to the prohibition within Glacier National Park and will expand the areas of the park where non-permitted commercial passenger-carrying motor vehicles are allowed. The effects of this rule on tour operators will be to clarify and add consistency to current restrictions. The modification of the existing regulation will recognize and conform the regulations to the current practices of the Park. Effects of this rule on the visitor are expected to be minimal.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 11, 1995.
